Dear Director of UN-DPI,

Re: SHALOM CENTER FOR CONFLICT RESOLUTION AND RECONCILIATION (SCCRR)

I am delighted to write a letter of recommendation on behalf of the SHALOM CENTER FOR CONFLICT RESOLUTION AND RECONCILIATION (SCCRR) to be legitimately in association with UN-DPI. I am Vice-Chancellor Designate, Tangaza University College Rev. Fr. Stephen Mbugua. SCCRR and Tangaza University College has worked collaboratively in contributing to knowledge transfer since 2010 and its unique professional input in conflict transformation is momentous.

The chairman, Dr. Patrick Devine, in 2010 initiated the first course at this University on Conflict Resolution and Reconciliation geared towards sustainable peace and Development, which still continues. SCCRR has been excellent in organizing professional administered, conferences and seminars conflicts and emerging security threats; research methods, radicalisation and terrorism, proliferation of small arms and light weapons, religion and conflict, etc. Many diplomats, government agents and Intergovernmental Authority on Development (IGAD), among other institutions have collaborated and attended. In its role as an agent of human security and conflict transformation, the organization has research rigorously on the causal factors of many conflicts in the region and prescribed intervention by various stakeholders.

SCCRR has come across many challenges in the Horn of Africa volatile operational environment; but its occupational dedication to its work has enabled it to surmount limitations. SCCRR has inserted itself in the remotest parts of the IGAD region with its highly qualified team.

As the Vice-Chancellor Designate, I would describe SCCRR as a qualified and specialized partner and NGO, committed to conflict transformation and sustainable development who has displayed evidential success, recognised the world over. I fully recommend SCCRR to be associated with UN-DPI, as I am positive of its ability to make significant contribution towards the UN Organization, Vision 2030 and beyond. Please feel free to call us at (+254 0208067667, 0722204724 , 0733685059 / inquiries@tangaza.org), if you would like us to further elaborate on SCCRR's professionalism and stature.

Sincerely

Vice-Chancellor Designate ,Rev. Fr. Stephen Mbugua
